Hargis heading to Hall of Fame

November 12, 2009 12:13 pm

— Oklahoma State University President Burns Hargis is among inductees heading into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame tonight in Tulsa.

OSU alums Marlin G. “Ike” Glass, Jr., Newkirk and Steven W. Taylor,

McAlester, also are on the list of seven inductees this year. Billionaire oilman T. Boone Pickens will present Hargis for the induction ceremony.

This year’s inductees join the cast of 628 people who have been inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame since 1928.

Also on being inducted tonight:

C. Kendric Fergeson, Altus; Polly A. Nichols, Oklahoma City; Lee Roy Selmon, Eufaula; and Wayman Lawrence Tisdale, Tulsa, to be inducted posthumously.
